Vorwort

Liebe Schülerin, lieber Schüler, mit diesem Heft kannst du dich selbstständig auf die Klassenarbeiten und Tests vorbereiten, die du in der 8. Klasse der Realschule schreibst.

Die enthaltenen Klassenarbeiten und Tests decken die wichtigsten Kompetenzen und Themen der 8. Klasse ab, sodass du die Arbeiten, die du in der Schule schreibst, gut vorbereitet angehen kannst. Anhand der Aufgaben in diesem Heft kannst du sehen, wie umfangreich dein Wortschatz ist oder wie gut du die Grammatik beherrschst. Außerdem musst du eigene Texte verfassen und Sprachmittlungsaufgaben bearbeiten. Daneben gibt es etliche Klassenarbeiten und Tests, die Aufgaben zum Lese- oder Hörverstehen enthalten. Eine Hörverstehensaufgabe erkennst du an diesem Symbol . Hier benötigst du jeweils die dazugehörige MP3-Datei. Auf der vorderen Umschlaginnenseite findest du einen Link sowie deinen persönlichen Zugangscode, mit dem du die Hörverstehenstexte auf der Plattform „MyStark“ freischalten kannst.

Versuche, die Arbeiten ohne Hilfe zu lösen, und vergleiche erst zum Schluss deine Ergebnisse mit den Lösungen im Lösungsheft. Damit du deine Leistung richtig einschätzen kannst, gibt es zu jeder Aufgabe weitere Hinweise: Im Angabenteil findest du einen Notenschlüssel und die Punkte der einzelnen Teilaufgaben. Bei den Textproduktionen sind die Punkte zudem aufgeschlüsselt in Inhalt und Sprache (Wortschatz, Grammatik, Rechtschreibung).

Im Lösungsheft findest du neben den Lösungen auch die Transkripte zu den Hörverstehenstexten. Zu allen Aufgaben ist außerdem der Schwierigkeitsgrad angegeben und die Zeitangaben verraten dir, wie lange du ungefähr zum Lösen der Aufgaben brauchen solltest. Die Lösungen zu den Schreib-Aufgaben können dir hilfreiche Ideen für deine eigenen Textproduktionen liefern. Lies sie also aufmerksam durch, aber denke daran, dass sie nur als Vorschlag zu verstehen sind. Lass dich deshalb nicht verunsichern, wenn deine Lösung von den Vorschlägen abweicht.

Viel Erfolg bei deinen Klassenarbeiten wünschen dir

Heinz Gövert und Caroline Neu-Costello

Track 3

- 1 You are going to listen to some young Americans who have different views on lifestyle.
 - First read the statements below. There is one more statement than there are people.
 - Then listen to each person twice and choose the correct statement for each of them.
 - Write the correct letter (a–f) in the space while you are listening.
 - You do not need to understand all the words in the text to do the task.

- 2 Read the following text and fill in much or many.

— von 13

When people weigh far too _____, they are obese. Obesity can be the reason for _____ illnesses, like heart problems and diabetes. The number of Americans who are obese is growing daily. _____ American politicians are now thinking about putting a stop to the reasons for obesity. Too _____ unhealthy food and too _____ sugary drinks can cause obesity.

In 2012, the former mayor of New York City, Michael Bloomberg, wanted a law to reduce the size of sugary drinks in restaurants, stadiums, cinemas and _____ other places. He said that the size of a drink should be no bigger than half a liter. That would stop people from taking in too _____ calories.

But _____ Americans don't like the idea of too _____ laws. They say that such a law would go against personal freedom. Others say that shops would lose too _____ money with this new law.

So a judge stopped the new law in March 2013. He said that there were _____ reasons against it. Bloomberg said that the judge had made a big mistake and that _____ doctors were of the same opinion. He thinks that there is _____ that must be done to help people to become healthier.

New or difficult words

obese – fettleibig	obesity – Fettleibigkeit politician – Politiker	former mayor – ehemaliger Bürgermeister
to reduce – reduzieren	calorie – Kalorie judge – Richter

- 3 You think Bloomberg's idea is great, so you decide to write to your American friend. Here are some ideas you want to put into your email. Write them down in English. _____ von 10

- a Erkläre, dass es in Deutschland viele Menschen gibt, die übergewichtig sind, weil sie keinen Sport treiben.

- b Schreibe, dass einige deiner Freunde manchmal zu viel essen und süße Getränke trinken.

- c Frage, ob dein Freund/deine Freundin viele Leute kennt, die Bloombergs Gesetz gut finden.

- d Sage ihm/ihr, dass man in deutschen Kinos nicht so große Getränke bekommt wie in Amerika.

- e Schreibe, dass du möchtest, dass auch deutsche Politiker Ideen haben, die so gut wie die von Bloomberg sind.

beschädigt. Kraftwerke fingen Feuer, was zur Folge hatte, dass 21 in vielen Gegenden der Stadt der Strom für einige Tage ausfiel. Viele New Yorker konnten ihre Wohnungen nicht ver-lassen und mussten im Dunkeln und in der Kälte ausharren.
In Chelsea wurden viele Galerien überflutet und zahlreiche Kunstwerke zerstört.

LISA'S PARENTS: Und inwiefern war Jennas Familie betroffen? Hat sie etwas von ihren eigenen Erfahrungen erzählt?

LISA: Ihre Familie hatte über eine Woche keinen Strom. Es war wohl fürchterlich kalt und dunkel und Jenna konnte zwei Wochen lang nicht zur Schule gehen.

LISA'S PARENTS: Gab es denn auch etwas Positives, was der Hurrikan mit sich gebracht hat?

LISA: Jenna hat betont, dass die Leute zusammenhalfen. Viele freiwillige Helfer arbeiteten zusammen mit Polizei, Feuerwehr und Krankenhausangestellten, ohne zu wissen, was mit ihren eigenen Häusern und Wohnungen geschehen war.

Hörverständnistext (Track 3)

EMMA: I used to eat a lot of burgers and drank huge amounts of sugary drinks – especially coke, and I didn't think about it much until a doctor told me that I had to lose weight if I didn't want to risk my health.

Today, I'm more careful with what I eat and drink and feel a lot better.

LUIS: You can't just watch how people live such an unhealthy life. If people don't know how to look after themselves, the government should protect them. The government could do more, especially when it comes to school food.

MEGAN: I don't have a weight problem myself, but some of my friends are terribly overweight. They never stop eating. Even after a full meal they just eat and eat and eat. It's as if they don't realize that they're full.

GABRIEL: America's a free country. You can't tell people what and how much they can eat or drink. If someone doesn't mind being heavy – well, then that's okay with me.

JAMIE: XXL people are very American. They're just as American as our successful athletes. Some of my buddies are very sportive and fit, but others just don't care. Some do sports and eat fruit and vegetables, whereas others just relax at home and hardly move at all. In America, you get it all.

When people weigh far too much, they are obese. Obesity can be the reason for many illnesses, like heart problems and diabetes. The number of Americans who are obese is growing daily. Many American politicians are now thinking about putting a stop to the reasons for obesity. Too much unhealthy food and too many sugary drinks can cause obesity.

In 2012, the former mayor of New York City, Michael Bloomberg, wanted a law to reduce the size of sugary drinks in restaurants, stadiums, cinemas and many other places. He said that the size of a drink should be no bigger than half a liter. That would stop people from taking in too many calories. But many Americans don't like the idea of too many laws. They say that such a law would go against personal freedom. Others say that shops would lose too much money with this new law.

So a judge stopped the new law in March 2013. He said that there were many reasons against it. Bloomberg said that the judge had made a big mistake and that many doctors were of the same opinion. He thinks that there is much that must be done to help people to become healthier.

- a There are many people in Germany who are obese/weigh too much, because they don't do any sports.
- b A few of my friends sometimes eat too much and drink too many sugary drinks.
- c Do you know many people who / that like Bloomberg's law?
- d You can't get soft drinks in German movie theaters/cinemas that are as big as the ones in America.
- e I want/would like German politicians to have ideas as good as Bloomberg's.

Hörverstehenstext (Track 4)

RYAN: I love social media. I used to be on “Facebook” a lot, but now I mainly keep in contact with my friends and family via cell phone messaging apps like “WhatsApp”, because they're so easy to use. They're becoming more and more popular, I think. You just switch on your smartphone and you can send messages, photos, even videos right away. You can also create different chat groups, which I find very useful. Last week, I couldn't find my cell phone for a few hours – it was terrible. I felt as if I'd been cut off from the rest of the world.

CATHY: I'm a great fan of social networks, too. I'm on “Facebook”, but not every day. I've realized that you need a lot of time for it. Reading the latest posts from the people you know and posting updates yourself keeps you busy for hours. When I have a lot of homework to do, I don't go online because I know I couldn't stop quickly enough.

SAMUEL: I'm not a member of any social network, because you get all kinds of useless information. People think that they have to share every detail of their lives, but I don't want to know who has a bath, when and where. People tell you too many unimportant details about their lives! I meet my friends in real life, not online.

SANDRA: Last week a friend of mine told me she wanted a job at a café. She didn't get the job in the end, because she had posted photos of herself at parties in social networks. On those pictures she looked – well – a bit too happy, if you know what I mean. And at the job interview they told
